II. OTHER ACTIVITIES

a. On 9 June I had a phone call from [REDACTED] thanking us for the very successful visit which he and three of his senior officers had [REDACTED] during the previous week.

[REDACTED] informed me that he had talked at some length with Rod concerning the OFC and he made a date with me to talk with him and his training officer on 16 June to explore the possibility of enrolling three or four of his people in the OFC in the fall.

b. I spent the afternoon of 10 June and the morning of 11 June at [REDACTED]. The new setup is excellent. It appears much more business-like than the previous office, the security installation is first class, and [REDACTED] has initiated a filing system for students' materials and programs which is a model of its kind. The group is very busy at this time, including [REDACTED] who has been thrust completely into the program. She appears to be thriving on her new work.

c. [REDACTED] reports that the [REDACTED] Program is progressing quite nicely. He indicated some concern, however, over the fact that [REDACTED] is attempting to inject into the instruction a measure of propaganda designed to convince the NSA participants that their Agency is not qualified to conduct independent clandestine operations of the sort involved in the training program. I agree with [REDACTED] that it is not our function to influence inter-agency relationships or policies. I have asked him to influence [REDACTED] to cease and desist.
